5 Estimated Budget (per adult, 5-day trip)

Item	Approx. Cost (USD)
International flights (Emirates + Aeroflot)	$720
Domestic train (Moscow-St. Petersburg Sapsan)	$55
Visa (tourist, processing fee, invitation)	$80
Travel insurance (US $30 000 coverage)	$30
Accommodation (5 nights)	$2 \times $110 + 3 \times $115 = \mathbf{$565}$
Meals (average $25 per day)	$5 \times $25 = \mathbf{$125}$
Sightseeing tickets & activities	$15 (Kremlin) + $20 (Hermitage) + $12 (St. Isaac) + $12 (Church of the Savior) + $20 (Canal cruise) + $15 (Peterhof entry) + $5 (audio guide) + $8 (Peter & Paul ferry) + $30 (optional Bolshoi tour) $\approx \mathbf{$137}$
Local transport (taxis, metro, airport transfers)	$30 (Moscow airport-hotel) + $15 (taxi to train station) + $12 (Moscow metro) + $20 (St. Petersburg airport) + $15 (taxi to hotel) + $15 (daily metro/tram) $\approx \mathbf{$107}$
Miscellaneous / souvenirs	$100
Total Approx.	$1,919

The above is a mid-range estimate. Choosing the budget-friendly Ibis hotels would shave roughly \$150-\$200 off the total. Prices are based on October 2026 market rates and may vary by $\pm 10\%$.

6 Final Recommendations

1. Visa & Invitation – Book your hotel rooms now (both Moscow and St. Petersburg) and ask the hotels for a tourist invitation letter. This is required for the Russian consulate in New Delhi. Apply at the Russian Visa Center at least 3
